

Communications & Strategies

What is this Theme about?

This Theme focuses on communication and dissemination activities, supporting the community in developing and implementing the long-term ENVRI community strategy and community building. The theme facilitates the raising of awareness and engagement of the current and potential users of the developments and solutions within the community. Activities of this Theme contribute to reducing the fragmentation of the environmental Research Infrastructure landscape.