

Service component

Term	Service component
Abbreviation
Definition	Logical part of a service that provides a function enabling or enhancing a service Note 1: A service is usually composed of several service components Note 2: A service component is usually built from one or more configuration items (CIs) Note 3: Although a service component underlies one or more services, it usually does not create value for a customer alone and is therefore not a service by itself
Source	FitSM-0
Owner
Last updated	2020. 12. 11